Approved For Release 2003/12/02: CIA-RDP77M00144R000500010040 furlines

8 April 1975

	MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD 25X1A
	SUBJECT: Conversations with Counsel's Office
	25X1A 25X1A today,
25X1A	1. In my conversations with
[25X1A	Nedzi and the paper was read by Mr. Slatchek (phonetic) of Mr. Nedzi's staff. Mr. Slatchek asked questions
	Mr. Nedzi asked whether the entire proceeding said that	25X1A 25X1A
25X1A 25X1A 25X1A	it did except that reminded MI. Ned21 that some vulnerability might come from the fact that two officers did later go to work for said he told Mr. Nedzi that we	25X1A
23/1/	in CIA are confident that no "feather bedding" was	25X1A
	over management of the transaction with making feather bedding impossible. said that Mr. Nedzi wished at that point to have the safety which " a GAO look and imprimatur" would give the	25X1A
25X1A	25X1A 2. asked me to get with Messrs. John McMahon (A/DDA), Charlie Kane (D/SEC), McMahon (A/DDA), arrive at a decision on who
25X1A	about a woodlock a light this decline of the first first
25X1A	alluding to the same team whose members and which looked into the Southern Air Transport divestiture.) noted that the Comptroller General, as agent of Congress, is the appropriate party to do this job rather than GSA, who would be the agent of the Executive Branch. He reiterated that the question is whether the Agency or Mr. Nedzi should activate GAO. He said Mr. Nedzi definitely wanted a post facto look at what had been done.

E2 IMPDET

Approved For Release 2003/12/02 : CIA-RDP77M00144R000500010041-4

3. I will be calling the p after AC/SOG conveys Mr. Briggs'	arties named above on this concurrence in this line
of action.	25X1A
cc: AC/SOG ^{25X1A}	